

The issue of allowing independant internet service providers (ISP) access to telecommunications services such as DSL has allowed me to be MUCH better serviced by my ISP (Sonic.net) than I was ever served by PacBell (SBC). Please continue to regulate the industry and mandate that telecom giants offer services to smaller internet service providers.